

Sky Dive for Trinity!

08/10/2009 20:01 by Shelby_King

Ever thought of jumping out of an aeroplane at 15,000 feet for charity? Me neither. However the brave (mad) Secretary of Friends of Trinity Marie Purvis will be doing just that in the New Year in Exeter, thanks to her husband Lee who booked the "experience" on her behalf and told her after.

Marie will be raising money for Friends of Trinity and would really love your support and sponsorship.

Good Luck Marie, I'm sure the time will fly by!
